

1973	Representatives from Tokamachi's silk textiles industry undertake a goodwill visit to Como
1974	Tokamachi City Council votes unanimously in favor of entering into sister city relations with Como
1975	A sister city agreement is signed on February 27-
1977	Representatives from Tokamachi's silk textiles industry undertake a goodwill visit to Como
1980	A goodwill delegation visits Como to mark the 5 th anniversary year of sister city relations
1981	Representatives from Como arrive in Tokamachi to mark the 5 th anniversary year of sister city relations
1982	A youth goodwill delegation visits Como
1983	A youth delegation from Como visits Tokamachi
1984	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tokamachi holds "Italian Fair" • The 2nd youth goodwill delegation visits Como
1985	Representatives from Como arrive in Tokamachi to mark the 10 th anniversary year of sister city relations
1986	A goodwill delegation including the 3 rd youth goodwill delegation visits Como to mark the 10 th anniversary year of sister city relations
1990	A goodwill delegation including the 4 th youth goodwill delegation visits Como to mark the 15 th anniversary year of sister city relations
1991	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Tokamachi Como Sister City Exchange Association is established • Tokamachi holds "Buongiorno Italia 91"
1992	The Tokamachi Como Sister City Exchange Association sends a goodwill delegation to Como
1993	The Tokamachi Como Sister City Exchange Association sends a goodwill delegation to participate in a new year's musical concert in Como
1994	Videographers from both cities shoot and create videos of Tokamachi and Como
1995	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Representatives from Como arrive in Tokamachi to mark the 20th anniversary year of sister city relations • Kawaji Elementary School and F. Filzia Primary School register as sister schools
1996	Tokamachi City invites Ms. Adua Castagno from Como to work as a Coordinator for International Relations in Tokamachi
1998	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Como gifts a model Lucia boat to Tokamachi City • Kawaji Elementary School students visit Como
1999	A goodwill delegation visits Como to mark the 25 th anniversary year of sister city relations
2000	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Representatives from Como arrive in Tokamachi to mark the 25th anniversary year of sister city relations • A formal goodwill delegation visits Como and presents the city with a stone monument • The Tokamachi City Art Association holds an exhibition in Como

2001	Tokamachi holds "Como & Tokamachi 2001"
2004	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2 Como artists participate in Tokamachi's stone sculpture symposium • A goodwill delegation visits Como to mark the 30th anniversary year of sister city relations
2005	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A goodwill delegation visits Como and representatives from Como arrive in Tokamachi to mark the 30th anniversary year of sister city relations • A student exchange program is established
2010	A goodwill delegation visits Como to mark the 35 th anniversary year of sister city relations
2011	Celtic harp player Fabius Constable visits Tokamachi City
2013	Tokamachi organizes a tour for Italian tourists
2015	A goodwill delegation visits Como and representatives from Como arrive in Tokamachi to mark the 40 th anniversary year of sister city relations
2016	A goodwill delegation holds "Hegi soba cultural exchange" at Como's CFP college
2017	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students from Como's CFP college study Japanese cooking in Tokamachi and prepare a dinner for Tokamachi citizens at the "An Evening in Como" dinner party (March 26 ~ May 13) • A Tokamachi City promotional corner is installed in Como's Info Point tourist information centre (May 6 ~ Sept 30) • The leader of Como's Associazione Taiko Lecco visits Tokamachi City (Aug 12 ~ Aug 17) • 2 chefs from Tokamachi visit Como and participate in the Sant'Abbondio Fair, promoting Japanese and Tokamachi foods (Aug 29 ~ Sept 4) • Tokamachi holds "Italian Fair in Tokamachi" in coordination with The 2nd World Italian Food Week (Nov 20 ~ Nov 26)
2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students from Como's CFP college study Japanese cooking in Tokamachi and prepare a dinner for Tokamachi citizens at the "An Evening in Como" dinner party (March 20 ~ May 5) • 2 Tokamachi chefs study cooking and the service in a Michelin star restaurant in Como (May 7 ~ May 21) • Kimono designs made by secondary school students in Como are evaluated by industry representatives in Tokamachi and compiled into a book (Feb ~ Aug) • 8 representatives from Miciscirube, a Japanese cultural association in Como, visit Tokamachi and participate in the Echigo-Tsumari Art Triennale as volunteer staff (Aug 4 ~ Aug 11) • Tokamachi holds "Italian Fair in Tokamachi" in coordination with The 3rd World Italian Food Week (Nov 19 ~ Nov 25) A launch event is held on Nov 18
2019	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An organizing group comes from Como to Tokamachi for the 40th anniversary year of the photo contest, and holds a meeting about camera shooting (March 27~March 28)

2020	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In continuation to the previous year, 2 Tokamachi chefs study cooking and the service in a Michelin star restaurant in Como (May 7 ~ May 21) • Mr. Netsu Kimiaki, CEO of Neshige Orimono Co. Ltd. Holds a class about kimono, yukata and their production techniques at the silk factory high school Paolo Carcano (November 11 ~ November 16) • Tokamachi holds” Italian Fair in Tokamachi” (Oct 26 ~ Nov 24) in coordination with The 4th World Italian Food Week. Two chefs come from Como to hold a special event (November 2). • Preparation for the 45th anniversary year of sister city relations. *The celebrations are cancelled in both cities due to the spreading of Coronavirus disease 2019 (Feb) • 22 students of Como’s silk factory high school Paolo Carcano specializing in fashion make 22 yukata, that are worn by high school students and others from Tokamachi at the “House of Light”, where a promotional video is shot • Tokamachi holds” Italian Fair in Tokamachi 2020” (Oct 24~Nov 29) in coordination with The 5th World Italian Food Week • 8 yukata designed by Como students are displayed at “Danjuro” in Tokamachi, together with the showing of the promotional video (November 8 ~ November 13) • The yukata designed by Como students are displayed at Tokyo Metropolitan Industrial Trade Center (Nov 28~ 1 December)
2021	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The yukata made for the “kimono project” are displayed in Como city (May 5~May 20) • The yukata made for the “kimono project” are displayed at the Silk Museum (Oct 15~Nov 29) • Tokamachi holds” Italian Fair in Tokamachi 2021” (Oct 23~Nov 28)
2022	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At the proposal of the Japanese Cultural Association “Miciscirube”, 4 of the yukata made for the “kimono project” are displayed at the entrance hall of the Japanese general consulate in Milan. Moreover, the brochures “Japan’s heritage: Tokamachi, the last snow country” and “Presentation of The Echigo Tsumari Art Field & Triennale” are installed (Jan 7~ mid-Mar) • The cities of Como and Tokamachi, together with Famiglia Comasca and Tokamachi Como Sister City Associations participate at an online meeting (May 24) • The “De Agostini family and the cartography” exhibition is held (Oct 22~ Nov 27) • Tokamachi holds” Italian Fair in Tokamachi 2022” (Oct 22~Nov 27)